Chapter 1 by austin hamman

My name is Austin. for years i have known my what semblance has been. when my love ones are in danger i turn into a monster. I call it animal instinct . i got a distress call when Beacon was attacked. it was like this "hello this is Yang Xiaolong. I am pinned down in the school "bang" help". Then the signal went dark. I went to help little did i know she would be my true love.

Unfortunately, Yang didn't seem to see it that way. Well, maybe I'd best just tell you the story.

Unable to ever let anyone in trouble, I rushed over to Beacon, ready to help. The place was surrounded by monsters, and I pulled out my weapon and rushed to attack. Thankfully, I wasn't the only one fighting, as several of the students had joined in as well.

When the battle was over, I saw various teams of students celebrating, and overheard someone say, "Wow, Yang, that was some awesome fighting?" Was this the person who had called for help? I had to know.

"Excuse me, are you Yang Xiaolong?" I asked, as politely as I could. The blonde haired girl looked at me with a grin.

Her smile was wide and grateful, and I smiled back at her, bashfully. She was the most beautiful person I had ever seen, with such stunning hair and such beautiful eyes. I felt a fluttering in my heart. Was this love at first sight?

"So who are you then?" Asked one of Yang's teammates, dressed in black. For a moment, I had forgotten that anyone had existed outside of Yang, much less this annoyingly flippant teammate of hers.

"Austin." I told her. There was something that smelled off about that girl, something I couldn't place.

"Well, it was certainly, uh, nice to meet you Austin!" One of Yang's other teammates added in, before dragging the group away. I stared after Yang as she walked away. This was true love. I knew it.
